

EMAIL SUBJECT: Paysafe Plans to Go Public on the NYSE!

Dear XYZ,

As a valued partner/supplier/[OTHER CONSTITUENT] to Paysafe, we wanted to take a moment to let you know about some exciting news you may read about us. Today/this week, we are/were thrilled to announce a momentous milestone for Paysafe as we plan to go public and list our stock on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE).

This milestone is essentially an initial public offering (IPO), accomplished through a special purpose acquisition company (SPAC). In our case, our SPAC partner is Foley Trasimene Acquisition Corp II (NYSE: BFT), founded and led by Bill Foley who has a formidable reputation as an investor in financial services and payments businesses. The fact that an investor of Bill's standing saw us as such a rare investment opportunity is a huge testament to our unique B2C and B2B value proposition.

We expect this transaction to complete sometime in the first half of 2021 at which time we will start trading on the NYSE under the new ticker symbol "PSFE". Please bear in mind that we will continue to operate under the Paysafe name and it's very much 'business as usual' for our customers/partners. This event does, however, pave the way for significant financial resources to further strengthen our business and commitment to serving as a global leader in payments. For more information, you can view a press release on this announcement here.

We will contact you again when we have further updates to share. For now, thank you sincerely for the part that you have played in getting us to this point, and we look forward to continuing our collaboration.

Best,
XYZ
